

PAUL B. GUENTHER
Chairman

Mr. Guenther came to the Philharmonic following a highly successful career as president of PaineWebber Group, Inc., the parent company of PaineWebber Incorporated. Since his retirement in 1995 he has focused on the nonprofit sector. He was appointed Chairman of the New York Philharmonic in September 1996. From 1998 to 2004 he served as Chairman of Fordham University, where he continues as a board member. He also serves on the board of directors of The Guardian Life Insurance Company and RS Investments.

Mr. Guenther earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Fordham University and an MBA in finance from the Columbia Graduate School of Business. He was a 2005 recipient of an honorary doctorate of humane letters from Fordham University, a 2006 honorary doctor of laws from Marymount College, and a 1992 honorary doctor of laws from Concordia College.

His organizational associations include Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts (Director); Columbia University Graduate School of Business (Board of Overseers); Rockefeller University (Trustee); Lenox Hill Hospital (Vice Chairman); Frost Valley YMCA (Chairman); Mary Flagler Cary Charitable Trust (Trustee); Cristo Rey New York High School (Board of Directors); and the Governor's Committee on Scholastic Achievement (Trustee). He is also a current member of the Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts. Mr. Guenther is a former Director of the Securities Industry Association, and former President and Director of Columbia's Graduate School of Business Alumni Association.
